FRENCH TROOPS SEIZE MORE GERMAN TERRITORY

U. S. OFFICIALS SAY
NO NEW PROPOSAL
TO BE OFFERED
BEHALF EUROPE

Reports From Paris Receive
Denial; Colonel Boyden
May Give Hughes Plan

BULLETIN
BERLIN, Jan. 15.—The government announced this afternoon that Germany was ready to discuss reparations
with all the allies, but not with the French alone.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—
Reports from Paris today that the United States is about to propose new measures to remedy the critical situation brought about by France's occupation of the Ruhr were met with equally strong official denial at the state department.

The United States has not submitted any new proposals,
it was said, nor is there any likelihood of this government's doing so until there is a change
in policy on the part of continental nations, chiefly France.

Of Colonel Roland B. Boyden, American unofficial observer on the reparations commission, is considering making some remedial suggestions to the commission, he is doing it on his own responsibility and not upon instructions
from Secretary of State Hughes,
officials said in response to reports that Boyden was to lay a proposition before the powers.

Wide Latitude
The suggestion was advanced that Colonel Boyden might be preparing to formally submit to the reparations commission the so-called "Hughes plan" for an international commission of economic experts to survey the reparations tangle and recommend a solution.

Colonel Boyden has been permitted wide latitude. His recent speech to the commission, in which he proposed France's occupation of the Ruhr and suggested the need for a revision of the treaty of Versailles, was made without directions from the state department.

The speech, however, was approved by President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes. All reports of impending American moves abroad were denied today.

GRANT DELAY IN WAR DEBT MEET

British Debt Commissioner Asks New Orders From Premier Bonar Law

By W. H. ATKINS
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—
Pending receipt of additional capital instructions from Premier Bonar Law, the British debt commissioner here effecting an agreement for payment of the $5,000,000 debt of Great Britain to the United States today obtained from Secretary of the Treasury Mellon permission to postpone the next meeting with the American commission until 3 p. m. tomorrow.

A full report on the conference thus far was dispatched to Downing street Friday night by Stanley Baldwin, head of the British delegation. A request was made for new instructions.
Ask Lower Interest Rate
LONDON, Jan. 15.—Premier
A. Bonar Law today instructed Chancellor of the Exchequer
Stanley Baldwin, now in Washington heading the British debt
funding commission, to insist upon a further interest rate reduction. He suggests the United States would consent to three per cent upon the $4,277,000,000 owing. The premier approves payment of the debt with bonds.

COLD WAVE CONTINUES
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—
No let-up in the cold wave which resulted in heavy to killing frosts
in Northern California early today was promised by the United States weather bureau today.
Heavy frosts were predicted again
tomorrow morning.

DIES FROM GAS FUMES
SEATTLE, Jan. 15.—Charles Larimore, 52, is dead, his son and two granddaughters are recovering from partial asphyxiation as a result of sleeping in two small rooms while a gas stove was left burning under a liquor still.

Glendale Weather
Helps to Produce
Huge Tomato Vine

THE ideal weather that Glendaleans have been enjoying during the winter months has been emphasized by a fine, sturdy beef-steak tomato vine at the J. A.
Cheever home at 339 Concord street, where it has grown to a height of seven
and a half feet and in addition to producing fruit ever since August it is now covered with blossoms and an abundance of green fruit.

The unusual vine is even causing naive Californians
wonderment for tomatoes
are usually a California luxury in August and September.

Mrs. Cheever had the interesting experience last Friday of gathering seven and a half pounds of fruit
from her big vine and a smaller one. Some of the tomatoes she picked in the last few months have weighed as much as a pound and a quarter apiece.

EXPERT EXPLAINS
'CHILD' LUNCHES

Miss Woolridge, Teacher of Economics, Tells Club
About School Food

The children's school lunches,
a subject nearest the mothers'
hearts during the major portion of the year, was made an interesting subject recently by Miss L.
N. Woolridge, instructor of home economics at the Glendale Avenue Intermediate school, at the Central Avenue P. T. A. meeting.

Miss Woolridge presented her subject briefly, but in a manner that gave new inspiration for several hundred lunches that were eaten today by Central Avenue school. In her lunch discussion,
she said:

"Growing children have special needs in the way of food. Even when they eat all their meals at home it is no easy matter to see that they are properly fed and when they eat part of their meals
at school the difficulty is far greater.

Harder to Secure
"This is not because healthfulness and cleanliness are more important in this meal than in any other, but because they are harder to secure. It is not easy to keep food clean and attractive
when it must be packed and carried in a lunch basket. Nor is it easy to prepare meals in schools which are not specially fitted for the purpose.

"Lunch for school children presents two problems, first, supplying the proper kind and amount of food; and, second,
preparing and serving it.

"In order that children may be strong and well their food must meet three kinds of food needs:
First, it must provide the materials necessary for building and repairing all the different parts of the body. These are found in meats, eggs, meat, cheese, fish,
beans and nuts.

Provides Energy
"Second, it must provide energy and fuel foods, such as starches, fats and sugars, and,
third, it must provide regulating foods to regulate the chemical changes on which health and growth depend; mineral substances and vitamins found in fresh fruits and green vegetables.

"Milk is regarded as a necessity in the diet of every normal child because it supplies a very good form of tissue-building protein, because it is rich in lime,
and because it supplies the important vitamin A, which is especially needed by the growing body.

"Vegetables and fruits furnish little protein and some yield a fair amount of energy, but they are particularly valuable as sources of mineral matter and vitamins.

"Cereals play a very important

A. R. EASTMAN AT HOME FROM VISIT TO KANSAS CITY

Local Banker Tells About Conditions; Glendale Is Receiving Publicity

A. R. Eastman, president of the Glendale State bank, arrived home Saturday from a two weeks' visit to Kansas City, Mo., where he was called by the serious illness of his father. Mr. Eastman traveled via the Southern Pacific-El Paso and the Rock Island railways.

His Glendale friends will be glad to learn that his father is now out of danger and while still very sick physicians are confident that he will recover.

Mr. Eastman reports that he experienced nothing but sunshine
on his trip, both going and coming. There was no rain or snow and the ground was dry and wheat needing rain badly. He states that the weather, on the whole, was very similar to California. Travel, he says, was light and easy east but heavy coming west.

Many Coming Here
In conversations with farmers,
bankers and business men in and around Kansas City, Mr. Eastman found many who are figuring on coming to southern California and all of them said they wished they could live out here. Two vice-presidents of prominent Kansas City banks told him that they were so attracted to California that they are planning to come soon to make their homes
here.

In telling of his trip Mr. Eastman gives the following account of attending a meeting of the executive committee of the Rotary club of Kansas City at the Bal-more hotel. "It met to discuss civic questions," says Mr. Eastman, "and when I was introduced to the club as a former Kansas
City man and now of Glendale, Calif., the reaction from the fifty men present was interesting.

Glendale Well Known
"Immediately four men were
on their feet at the same time plying me with questions. All four knew and inquired about George Karr, a fellow member of Rotary.
Several fellows came to his defence. One told of Glendale as the fastest growing city in the United States; another said that it was the home of the Dr. Henry B. Hays, a laboratory and that he had been using his gland pills
for a number of years; another told of the Adventist sanitarium out here, in fact, Glendale was certainly well known to almost all of them.

Greatly Gratified
Mr. Eastman is glad to get back home and states that southern California and especially Glendale looks mighty good to him, after looking over the old town, that is bigger and better than they were twenty years ago.

As to local banking affairs Mr.
Eastman expresses himself as greatly gratified over the wonderful showing his bank has made in one year and three months, having total resources
of $970,000 at the close of business December 30, 1922.

The report of the annual election of the bank appears elsewhere in this issue of The Glendale Evening News.

Says Oil Industry
Competition Killed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Gasoline and oil prices in the United States are determined solely by "arbitrary dictation" of the so-called Standard Oil group, L. V.
Nicholas, president of the National Petroleum Marketers' association, charged today before a senate investigating committee.

Nicholas charged competition in the oil industry has been successfully eliminated and said that independents, in order to survive,
were compelled to accept prices decreed by Standard units, even though this action resulted in big losses.

RED RIVER DECISION
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.
The supreme court of the United States decided today the "Red river boundary along the Texas border is the south bank of the river and that flat lands between the bank and high lands on the Texas side to the middle of the river are owned by the federal government."

Anti-French Demonstrations
Through Rhineland; 30-Minute
Strike; People Don Mourning

ESSEN, Jan. 15.—This was a day of German mourning in all the occupied territory in the Rhineland. Black was conspicuously displayed as a protest against French occupation. Sunday had been selected as the national day of mourning.

The anti-French demonstrations included a thirty-minute strike throughout the Rhineland at noon. The French barricaded in the streets singing "Deutschland Uber dich nicht attempt to interfere. Thousands of workmen stood Alles." Violent anti-French speeches were made.

A mob surrounded the Kaiserhof (French headquarters)
singing anti-French songs and shaking their fists at the photographers on the balcony. One reporter who laughed at the German demonstration, was nearly lynched.

Fritz Thyssen, son of the coal and iron magnate, August Thyssen, and spokesman for the mine owners, defied the French, saying:

"We are Germans, subject only to German laws. We must obey our country."

SCOUT HEADS TO GATHER TONIGHT

Leaders of Verdugo Hills Council Plan Program
For Roundtable Meet

The troop leaders' round table
of the Verdugo Hills Boy Scout District Council will hold its first meeting of 1923 tonight at 8 o'clock at the cabin of Glendale's Troop No. 2 in Verdugo Woodlands.

Scoutmaster Benjamin Robinson
and his troop committee, consisting of Walter H. Packard, C. L.
Wyman and Charles L. Chandler, will be the hosts.

The meeting will be both educational and social, the object being to have features on the program that will be inspirational and instructive to the scout leaders that they may take back to their own troops.

A model troop meeting will be put on by the Scouts of Glendale Troop 2 under the leadership of Scoutmaster Benjamin Robinson
and Assistant Scoutmaster H. B.
Robinson. "How to Signal" will be told by Major C. L. Wyman, formerly division signal officer
and Lieutenant-colonel in the signal corps, United States army.

ILLNESS INVADERS
TEACHERS' RANKS

Four Substitutes Required to Fill Vacancies in Glendale Schools

Illness today has invaded the ranks of Glendale grammar school teachers.

Miss Carrie Noble of 953 North Avenue 64, Los Angeles, is absent from her duties as principal of the Wilson Avenue Intermediate school. Mrs. Mildred K. Postle of 398 Patterson avenue is substituting.

Mrs. Dorothy Hunt Sullivan of 406 West Maple street was unable to take charge of the kindergarten
at the Doran school this morning because of illness. Her place was filled by Miss Faith Turling of 426 South Adams street, kindergarten assistant at Pacific school.

Miss Annabell McCallan of 126
North Central avenue was not able to teach the fourth grade at the Columbus school. Mrs. Sarah D. VanHise of 451 Ivy street substituted.

Mrs. Jessie H. Hunt of 459
West Maple street was absent
from the first grade room at Columbus school today. This class was taught by Mrs. Janet Merrill Ord of 2716 Seneca avenue, Los Angeles.

NOT QUALIFIED, CLAIM
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 15.—E. C.
Cooper, appointed state insurance commissioner by Governor Stephens shortly before the latter's retirement from office, is not qualified for the position under a "broad" interpretation of the law, according to a statement made public by Governor Richardson's office today.

POLICE HUNT FOR WOMAN SUSPECT
IN BURGLARY

Officers Find Clews Female Thief Enters Home of John M. Hoffman

A woman's side comb found in a clothes closet at the John M.
Hoffman home at 343 West Windward road is the basis for the belief of officers that a woman was the thief who entered the home Saturday night, ransacked every room and left hurriedly with a varied collection of clothing and other articles, among which were a hypodermic needle and small bottle of drug fluid, all amounting to approximately $300.

In addition to the side comb female fingerprints have been discovered and the Hoffmans and the officers are confident that it was a woman or women who robbed
the home or helped in the robbery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman attended the first show at the Glendale theatre Saturday night and arrived home shortly after 9 o'clock to find their home in an unset condition, furniture being disarranged and contents of drawers and closets strewn about the rooms.

Frightened Away
The thief or thieves had entered the house through a window in the bath room and were evidently making plans to leave when the Hoffmans' return frightened them away. Proof of their hurried departure was offered by a partly packed suitcase in the middle of the floor in one of the bed rooms.

That there was a woman engaged in the robbery is seen in the disappearance of so many things belonging to Mrs. Hoffman.
Mrs. Hoffman, formerly Mrs.
Madge Maddox, is a graduate nurse, and among the articles of clothing taken were four nurse's uniforms, the hypodermic set and a thermometer.

In addition she lost an expensive heavy plush coat, a black satin dress, lodge pins, two neck ties, a graduate nurse's pin, two gold rings.

Bank Book Missing
Mr. Hoffman suffered little loss, the thieves taking a few of his neckties, some valuable papers
and his bank book.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman immediately notified the Glendale police, who assisted in searching the house for clues and found the side comb in one of the clothes
closets that had been ransacked.
They also found female fingerprints and are hoping that the clues will lead to the identification of the thief.

Drivers Uninjured
When Autos Crash

Former Detective Sergeant E.
S. Boucher of 429 West Dryden street, driving south on Glendale avenue about 5:45 p. m. yesterday when Joe Stadler of 444
East Santa Barbara street, Los Angeles, was going east on Broadway. The cars collided.

"The other car hit my left rear
fender," said Mr. Boucher. "It pinned me around and broke my right rear wheel. A tire blew out."

Doran street and Central avenue was the scene of a collision about 7:30 Saturday night between cars driven by G. H. Hoffman of 5414 Broadway street and J. La Pifer of Los Angeles.

"One auto passed me and I did not see the other coming," remarked Mr. Hoffman.

Mr. Pifer's car had one spring broken and its front axle sprung.
Damage was paid for by Mr. Hoffman.

Woman Denies Klan Applied Hot Iron

TILLAMOOK, Ore., Jan. 15.—
Personal enemies, not the Ku Klux Klan, branded Mrs. Nevada Standish with a red hot cross on the night of November 21, the beautiful 30-year-old matron told an interviewer today.

She refused to give the names
of her enemies or explain the hated which caused the two hooded men to seize her in her home
at midnight and apply the heated cross to her breast.

100,000 Barrels of Gasoline Destroyed
BEAUMONT, Tex., Jan. 15.— Fire which has raged fiercely for nearly twenty-four hours in two huge gasoline storage tanks of the Magnolia Refinery here, continued to wreak destruction today. More than 100,000 barrels of gasoline valued at approximately $450,000
have thus far been destroyed.

Lithuanians Take Memel Is Report;
Fear Outbreak

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—
Lithuanian irregulars captured Memel this afternoon, disarming the armful of French guards on duty
there, said a telephone message from Koeningberg. It is believed that several persons were killed in the fighting.

The Lithuanians seized the French prefecture. Memel is the capital of the neutral zone established by the allies
after they cut off from Germany the extreme northeastern strip of the country bordering Lithuanian territory.

Allied naval reinforcements are expected tomo-
row. The German consulate at Memel reports that excitement is running high.

CLAIM 'TORTURE
RACK' IS FOUND

Machine Discovered in Slime
Of Lake May Be Mob's
Death Instrument

MER ROUGE, Jan. 15.—A ponderous machine brought from iron and wood, was found today
by the International News Service, buried deep in the slimy bottom
of Lake La Fouchere where the tortured bodies of Watt Daniels and Thomas F. Richards were tossed by their "hooded mob"
murderers almost five months ago.

Authorities believe this machine
is one of three things: 1.—An improvised "torture
rack," which the state pathologists declared in court was used by the "hooded mob" in putting to death Richards and Daniels.

2.—The tremendous weights attached to the bodies by the murderers in an effort to conceal forever the ghastly truth of their crime.

3.—A motor car, presumably one of those used by the murderers, which witnesses declared did not return from the lake on the night of the slayings.

Evidence of this discovery by the International News Service was turned over to the staff of Attorney-General A. V. Cocco, chief of the state's legal forces now prosecuting the "hooded mob"
murderers, and to the United States department of justice agents ferreting out the crime. Officials of both offices refused to comment on the findings.

Caught by Cable Drag
The machine was discovered by investigators who dragged the bottom of the lake with steel cables.

The object was located in forty-eight feet of water and partly buried under six feet of mud.
Specially constructed steel sounding rods were used to determine the fact that the buried machine was composed of iron and wood. By use of the same instruments, it was further learned the machine has a maximum length of eight feet. Its width was undetermined.

Suspect Klan Fires
Catholic Churches

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—An attempt to destroy St. Mary's Roman Catholic cathedral at Hamilton, Ont., by fire early today was followed by a decision of the Canadian government to probe persistent reports that a Canadian branch of the Ku Klux Klan is conducting an organized campaign of incendiarism against Catholic church property.

This is the third Catholic church fire in several weeks. St.
Mary's cathedral was one of the oldest churches in Canada. In some places in Eastern Canada
special guards are being employed to watch Catholic property.

Edna Purviance Is Seriously Ill, Report

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Edna Purviance, film beauty and leading woman for Charlie Chaplin Productions, is critically ill at her home in Wilshire Terrace court,
it was learned today, following a relapse from an attack of pleurisy. Miss Purviance is under the care of a specialist who said today that though her recovery is assured she will need a long rest.

'YORICK' PASSES AWAY
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 15.—
Edwin H. Clough, chief editorial writer of the San Diego Tribune and Union, is dead here today at the age of 69. Under the pen name of "Yorick," Clough's writings have been known to America for years.

300 SQUARE MILES
ALONG INDUSTRIAL BELT IN CHARGE
INVADING FORCE

Passive Resistance Being
Owners and Workers

BULLETIN
PARIS, Jan. 15.—France will propose at tomorrow's meeting of the inter-allied reparations commission that Germany be declared in voluntary default of reparations deliveries because of Berlin's orders to the Ruhr coal mine owners and managers not to deliver any more coal to the allies, it was learned this evening.

ESSEN, Jan. 15.—Coal deliveries to France and Belgium under terms of Saturday's tentative agreement by which the French and Belgians were to pay in cash for coal taken from the Ruhr mines was prohibited
today by the national coal commissioners.

By S. D. WEYER
For International News Service
ESSEN, Germany, Jan. 15.— Stiffening German resistance against French military occupation led to resumption of French troop movements today in the Ruhr and the Rhineland.

French cavalry occupied Bochem, a great German industrial and mining city, at noon. Ruhr and Gelsenkirchen have been occupied. The French now have taken over approximately 200 square miles along the northern end of the Rhineland industrial belt.

The German coal commission ordered the Ruhr mines not to deliver any coal to the French and Belgians for cash payments
despite the tentative agreement reached by the French and the mine managers Saturday. The French summoned the mine owners into a conference, but obeying
orders from Berlin the owners refused to attend.

Workmen Support Owners
Workmen in the Rhineland and Ruhr are supporting the mine and mill owners. Demonstrations against French occupation were made, although there had been no serious disorders up to early afternoon.

After the French penetrated
Bochem they established troop guards over the extensive coal mines and industrial plants
owned by Hugo Stinnes, Germany's foremost industrialist.

German opposition is growing steadily stronger, encouraged by the violent anti-French attitude of officials at Berlin.

The French military lines now extend from Dusseldorf to Ket-tewig and Werdor in the north, ward past Essen to a line running through Buer, Gelsenkirchen and Bochum in the north.

French army officers threaten to extend the occupation further into Germany unless Berlin relents and the mine managers are allowed to sell coal to the French and Belgians.

French Advance Upon
Bochem Being Continued

By FRANK E. MASON
For International News Service
PARIS, Jan. 15.—French troops are advancing into Bochem, War Minister Maginot announced this afternoon.

According to the army newspaper, L'Echo de Paris, the activities of French troops in the Rhineland were resumed "as a reply to Berlin's refusal to pay the mine owners for coal turned over to the allies.

French troops have occupied the whole region around Buer, seven miles north of Essen, according to word received here today from French Rhineland headquarters.

Advices to the foreign office said
the French advance upon Bochem commenced at 5 o'clock.

TWO SUSPECTS IN HOLDUP OF MINT UNDER ARREST

Frozen Body of One Bandit Discovered in Garage in Denver Suburb

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Two suspects in the $200,000 Denver mint robbery, in which a guard was killed, are under arrest here today. One of the men, who gave his name as Dan Cuthane, is believed by the police to be Albert T. Hollywood, suspected leader of the bandit gang.

Five detectives, acting on advice from the police of Kansas City, seized Cuthane while he lay in bed in the Washington hotel. He had been traced through a long distance call he had made to Kansas City. The Kansas City police had tapped the wire.

Cuthane denied he was a member of the Denver mint robbery gang. He said he was a St. Louis gambler. He would not explain the marked money found in his possession. The other suspect was held in an outlying station. Hollywood has been sought also as the leader of a band which raided the Citizens' bank of Springfield, Mo., and escaped with $20,000.

Bandit's Body Found
DENVER, Jan. 15.—The frozen body of the man who wore the coffee-colored overcoat and slouch hat and the famous Buick car carrying the Colorado license body No. 81-009 that carried the gang of bandits who held up the federal reserve bank truck in front of the mint and killed Charles T. Linton on the morning of December 18, was found last night in a garage in fashionable Capital Hill.

Seven .45 calibre revolver cartridges were found in his left hand side pocket of his coat. Beside the body was bloody rag, three caps and a pump. Clothing tags on the shirt band and collar indicated that the man was from Chicago, and the only clue to his identity was the initials "T. F. H." on a handkerchief.

Shain by Guard, Belief
The bandit is described as being about 35 years old, five feet ten inches in height and weighs about 170 pounds with the muscular appearance of an athlete.

The description fits that of the bandit who sat next to the driver of the bandit car as it sped away from the mint, and it is believed that he is the man who was struck by a bullet from the gun of Guard Peter Lescuyer.

According to the police, death was due to a wound over the heart, and the man had apparently died the day of the shooting.

PACIFIC BOARD MEETING
There will be an executive board meeting of the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teachers' association Thursday afternoon at the school, at 2 o'clock, announced Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, president of the association. This meeting will be followed by the regular open session, at 3 o'clock. The program will be announced later.

U. S. Jazz Players Stir Up London

LONDON, Jan. 15.—American "jazz" threatens to become a thorn in the side of the British government. British police are hiring American "jazz artists" for their dance orchestras. British music unions are taking exception to this and have carried their case to Commons.

Labor members of Commons have twisted Sir Montague Barlow, Minister of Labor, and demanded that he stop issuing permits for the entrance of American dance musicians into England to engage in work here, claiming that the issuance of these permits is robbing British subjects of their right to earn a living.

While the Parliamentary battle over the merits of "jazz" rages on, the American "jazz" continue to top their saxophones to the joy of the dancing British.

The importation by a fashionable hotel of a highly-paid American saxophone player caused the rumpus. The salary of this musician is said to have staggered British musicians, who immediately arose in their wrath and demanded that they be given the opportunity to earn similar fancy salaries, but they found all of the positions filled.

Despite the opposition of labor organizations Richmond Temple, representative of a chain of fashionable hotels, will sail for America in January to scout for new American "jazz artists."

"There is no denying that American musicians furnish the best dance music in the world," Temple says. "We intend to have the best, and if the government says we can't have the best, then we will close our dance floors, and let the British dancing public suffer."

California Takes Lead in 'Dry' Work

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Coincident with the announcement recently that twenty-five, possibly thirty, nuisance abatement suits would be instituted in the federal district court here against violators of the Volstead act, it became known that a movement is on foot to give national prominence to the successful nuisance abatement work in California, as carried on by Samuel F. Rutter, state prohibition director, and his special counsel, W. J. Gloria.

It appears that in California alone of all the states in the union has there been any success in prosecuting nuisance abatement proceedings against tenants and landlords in national prohibition cases.

The recent pronouncement by President Harding that he desired the Volstead act enforced with all vigor, strongly encouraged Director Rutter and his entire staff of California prohibition agents to work harder than ever to convince Washington authorities that the Volstead act was being enforced to the letter of the law in each of its provisions.

The successful prosecution in San Francisco, San Jose and Gilroy of nuisance proceedings has attracted the attention of Prohibition Commissioner Roy Haynes, the president and other officials. They have asked the California prohibition officials for detailed reports of their abatement cases, how the data for them were assembled, and for information concerning the preparation of affidavits, reports and the suits when filed. Rutter and Gloria, it seems, have established precedents in the abatement suits which official Washington desires to try out in other localities.

The news that twenty-five abatement suits, twenty-one more than was contemplated, are to be filed in the federal district court in this district, created quite a stir among the persons who have been charged with bootlegging and moonshine, as well as among landlords who rented houses and other buildings to the alleged Volstead act violators.

School Repair Shop Sole Pupil's Shoes

AGOSTA, Ohio, Jan. 15.—Youngsters attending the high school here need not worry when their parents inform them how hard they are on shoes. Principal John E. Clark has established a shoe repair division in his manual training department, and is teaching the boys how to lower the high cost of living by putting the soles on their own shoes.

part in the food of children."

Other Suggestions
Miss Woolridge also presented suggestions for bills of fare for home lunches for children. They were:

"Eggs, boiled, coddled, poached or scrambled; bread and butter; spinach or other greens; plain cake."

"Beef stew with vegetables; crisp, thin, tea biscuits; honey."

"Dried beef or pea or peanut butter purée; toast; baked apples; cookies."

"Vegetable milk soup; zwieback; rice with maple sugar and butter milk or cream."

"Potato chowder; crackers; jelly sandwiches."

"Milk toast; string beans; stewed dried fruit; plain cake."

"She then gave the requisites for the school lunch basket and some suggestions for packing."

Following this were some suggestions for basket lunches:

"Sandwiches with sliced tender meat for filling; baked apples; cookies, or a few lumps of sugar."

"Slices of meat loaf or bean loaf; sandwiches; stewed fruit; small frosted cake."

"Crisp rolls hollowed out and filled with chopped meat or fish, moistened and seasoned or mixed with salad dressing; orange, apple, a mixture of sliced fruits or berries and cake."

The dance is to be held in the Victor Manufacturing company's new building at the corner of San Fernando road and Harvard street. Music for dancing will be furnished by the Marian Jones orchestra.

BETTER ART FOR SHOW IN SALON

Many American Pictures Display Departure From Cubist Suggestion

By ALICE LANGELEIR.
For International News Service.
PARIS, Jan. 15.—American exhibits at the Paris Autumn Salon are more numerous and perhaps more interesting than those of former years. There seems to be a definite departure from the cubist and "dada" traditions. The pictures are not so puzzling this year. Landscapes and portraits have not been neglected, but nudes hold an important place.

Mr. Robert Hostater, of Marysville, California, shows a striking and called "The Woman with the Blue Stockings," remarkable for its strength and finely-shaped head. Another, by Robert Johnson, a mother and child, is attracting a good deal of favorable comment. "The Sleeping Woman," a nude by Arthur Franck, of Philadelphia, gives an unusual idea of sleeping, but the body is thick and heavy, as in another of his studies, "The Woman with the Lemons," but one wonders what the lemons have to do with her.

Water Colors Shown
Will Hollingsworth, of Louisville, Ky., has a lovely series of water colors much in the style of Whistler. J. Barry Green, of New York and Eleanor Hay also exhibit some attractive little essays in coloring.

American landscapists include Kenneth Adams, of Topeka, Kansas, with a view of Cactus and Bion Barnett, of Jacksonville, with a Corsican scene. Elizabeth Doremus, of Philadelphia, has been painting the lovely River Long and exhibits a view of picturesque Mount Aris Dudley, of New York, has some charming Brittany scenes.

American artists are also to the fore in the still life and flower sections, with Bailey Foster, James Butler and P. H. Bruce. They are more rare in the sculpture section, but the bust of Mme. S., by Jo Davidson, the well known New York sculptor, is worth noting. Cecil de Biquiere Howard, from Niagara, has five delightful bronzes scattered here and there throughout the rooms.

"La Vierge a l'offrande," the offering Virgin, an immense statue twenty feet in height, dominates the great staircase. It is the work of Emile Bourdelle, at the same time mystic and pagan. The Virgin, of beautiful face, is offering her child to humanity as a promise of consolation. When finished in stone, the monument will dominate a great hilltop in Alsace.

At the foot of the same stairway is a superb and expressive white bear, by Pompon, in glistening white stone. This sculptor has sent a perfect menagerie of beasts, large and small.

Many French Exhibits
French artists have the bulk of exhibits, but Russian, Japanese and English are numerous. The celebrated Van Dongen, a Dutchman, has an interesting "Nephtune," very decorative and colorful. With his many head necklaces and earrings, his naked body and rose colored face, one thinks of a Hercules of the Quatz Arts.

The canvases called "The Crystal Palace at Antwerp," by Favory undoubtedly draws the largest crowd of curious onlookers. In a dimly-lighted cabinet the artist shows many half-clothed women playing with sailors and soldiers in debauching scenes. It is full of the canyons and the vivid colors of Renoir, but it is not as charming as "Woman with Bracelets," by Charles Guerin, which many consider to be the best painting of the collection.

"You know, mamma," one little girl said to her mother as they walked through the Salon, "the pictures are much prettier than last year." She couldn't have passed her sixth year, but her judgment seems to be pretty sound.

The soldier shuffled away to where a little circle of men in wide-brimmed, metal-encrusted hats squatted in the shade of a tree, chatting, laughing, and rolling cigars. He saluted one of these and delivered his message, whereupon the tall, gaunt Captain Rozales arose and came over to Pestia.

"The big one who was brought in today is not a gringo," said Pestia, by way of opening the conversation. "He is from Gran-avenoo. He can be of great service to us, for he is very friendly with the Germans—yet he looks like a gringo and could pass for one. We can utilize him. Also he is very large and appears to be equally strong. He should make a good fighter and we have none too many. I have made him a captain."

Rozales grinned. Already among Pestia's following of a hundred men there were fifteen captains. "Where is Granavenoo?" asked Pestia. "You mean to say, my dear Rozales?"

"Yes, of course. I recall it well now. For the moment it had slipped my mind. My grandfather who was a great traveler was there many times. I have heard him speak of it often."

"But I did not summon you that we might discuss European geography," interrupted Pestia. "I sent for you to tell you that the stranger would not consent to serve me unless I liberated his friend, the gringo, and that sneaking spy of a Miguel. I was forced to yield, for we can use the stranger. So I have promised, my dear captain, that I shall send them upon their road with a safe escort in the morning, and you shall command the guard. Upon your life respect my promise, Rozales, but if some of Villis's cutthroats should fall upon you, and in battle, while you were trying to defend the gringo and Miguel, both should be slain by the bullets of the Villistas—ah, but it would be deplorable, Rozales, but it would be your fault. Who, indeed could blame you who had fought well and risked your men and yourself in the performance of your sacred duty? Rozales, should such a thing occur what could I do in token of my great pleasure other than make you a colonel?"

"I shall defend them with my life, my general," cried Rozales, bowing low. "Good!" cried Pestia. "That is all. Rozales started back toward the ring of smokers. "Ah, Captain!" cried Pestia. "Another thing. Will you make it known to the other officers that the stranger from Granavenoo is a captain and that it is my wish that he be well treated, but not told so much as might injure him, or his usefulness, about our sad work of liberating poor, bleeding, unhappy Mexico."

Again Rozales bowed and departed. This time he was not recalled. Billy found Bridge and Miguel squatting on the ground with two dirty-faced peons standard guard over them. The latter were some distance away. They made no objection when Billy approached the prisoners though they had looked in mild surprise when they saw him crossing toward them without a guard.

Billy sat down beside Bridge, and broke into a laugh. "What's the joke?" asked Bridge. "Are we going to be hanged instead of being shot?"

"We ain't goin' to be either," said Billy. "an' I'm a captain. Whaddaya know about that?"

He explained all that had taken place between himself and Pestia while Bridge and Miguel listened attentively to his every word. "I thought it was about to be only out for us," said Billy. "We were in worse than I thought."

"Can the Bowery stuff, Billy," cried Bridge. "and talk like a white man. You can, you know."

"All right, boy," cried Billy, good-naturedly. "You see I forgot when there was anything pressing like this, to chew about. Then I fall back into the old lingo. Well, as I was saying, I didn't want to do it unless you would stay too, but he wouldn't have you. He has it in for all gringos, and that bull you passed him about me being from a foreign country called Grand Avenue! He fell for it like a rube for the tapped-wire stuff. He said if I wouldn't stay and help him he'd croak the bunch of us."

"How about that ace-in-the-hole you were telling me about?" asked Bridge. "I still got it," said Billy and he fondled something hard that swung under his left arm beneath his shirt; "but, Lord, man; what could I do against the whole bunch? I might get a few of them; but they'd get us all in the end. This other way is better, though I hate to have to split with you, old man."

"He was silent then for a moment, looking hard at the ground. Bridge whistled, and cleared his throat. "I've always wanted to spend a year in Rio," he said. "We'll meet there, when you can make your get-away."

"You've said it," agreed Byrne. "It's Rio as soon as we can make it. Pestia's promised to set you both loose in the morning and send you under safe escort. Miguel to his happy home, and you to El Cobre Rancho. I guess the old stuff ain't so bad after all."

Miguel had picked up his ears at the sound of the word escort. He leaned far forward, closer to the two Americans, and whispered. "Who is to command the escort?" he asked.

"I dunno," said Billy. "What difference does it make?" "It makes all the difference between life and death for your friend and for me," said Miguel. "There is no reason why I should need an escort. I know my way throughout all Chihuahua as well as Pestia or any of his cutthroats. I have come and gone all my life without an escort. Of course your friend is different. It might be well for him to have company to El Orocho. Maybe it is all right; but wait until we learn who commands the escort. I know Pestia well. I know his methods. If Rozales rides out with us tomorrow morning you may say goodbye to your friend forever, for you will never see him in Rio, or elsewhere. He and I will be dead before 10 o'clock."

"What makes you think that, boy?" demanded Billy. "I do not think, senor," replied Miguel; "I know."

"Well," said Billy, "we'll wait and see."

"It is Rozales say nothing," said Miguel. "It will do no good; we may then be on the watch, and if possible you might find the means to obtain a couple of revolvers for us. In which case—" he shrugged and permitted a faint smile to flex his lips. (To Be Continued)

TODAY—Paris' remodeled Casino de Paris is declared to be "Better Than America," writes Alice Langelier, Paris correspondent.

TOMORROW—Striking has become so general in Germany that it has risen almost to the dignity of an avocation, writes Karl M. Elsh, Berlin correspondent.

By ALICE LANGELIER
For International News Service.
PARIS, Jan. 15.—"Better than in America—even," is the slogan of the famous Casino de Paris, which has been entirely transformed since its fire last April and is now said to be the "only really fireproof theatre in the world." "It is the triumph of iron, cement and electricity," says Monsieur Volterra, the manager. "The machinery is the last word in modern perfection, everything in iron which works by electricity. You can search the world over for a theatre which is better fitted than mine."

Battling Sini likes to see his name in print. He is now busy making a collection of all the articles written about his famous case in the various newspapers. It is he and he alone who cuts them all and pastes them in a great scrapbook, which he has named his "Black Book."

Apartment with a swimming pool are going up for working men of the Eighteenth ward of Paris. The architect wanted to put a bathroom in each flat, but instead the city council decided to have a bath house on the ground floor with a plunge bath in a great hall about 155 feet long. In this ideal residence the occupants will get rid of their rubbish by means of a slide which connects with each apartment with a trolley which carries it straight to the hands of the garbage collector in the street.

"English Spoken" embroidered in neat red, white and blue colors is the little badge worn by Paris policemen of the opera district, where Englishman American tourists are most likely to pass. They are useful as well as handsome.

Many Parisians followed Marie Antoinette's famous piece of advice and ate cake because there was no bread on a recent Saturday and Sunday. The bakers closed up at noon because the government refused to grant them permission to raise prices. The pastry cooks, however, remained open and did a thriving business. The simpler cakes went first, then

THE QUENCHED SPARK GAP

The best gap is known as the "quenched gap." It has been found that a short spark between cool electrodes is quenched very quickly, the air becoming non-conducting almost immediately it is broken down, or as soon as the current falls to a low value. This action is also improved, if the sparking chamber is airtight. The standard form of quenched gap consists of a number of flat copper or silver discs of fairly large surface, say seven to ten centimeters in diameter at the sparking surface. To provide the necessary total length of gap for high voltage charging a number of these small gaps are put in series so that the spark will jump them all, one after the other, each disc being separated from the other by about two-tenths of a millimeter. These gaps are separated and well insulated from each other by rings of mica or paper specially prepared with insulating compounds.

The question of good insulation is an important one, as a breakdown of the insulation will result in cutting out one disc by short-circuiting to the adjoining one. The illustration shows a disc and partial assembly of the gap. This gap is cooled by either an air blower attached, when the power used is high, or by copper flanges, acting as radiators of heat, when the power is small or moderate. The number of discs or gaps used is determined by the voltage to be applied, usually allowing 1,200 volts for each gap.

mitting to receiving, the aerial is grounded for a fraction of a second before the receiving position is reached, thus draining the antenna of any residual discharge and preventing any disagreeable kick in the telephone receivers. The closing of the switch in the sending position also closes the power circuit, which starts the rotary gap or quenched gap blower, if such apparatus is used, and places the power at the disposal of the key.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SHAVING CREAM

"What are you doing, Uncle Wiggily," called Nurse Jane up the back stairs, for she heard the bunny gentleman moving around up there, one morning.

"I am shaving," answered Mr. Longears. "I am taking off some of my whiskers, so I shall be nice and smooth to go out and have an adventure. I am shaving, Nurse Jane, so I won't look so much like a tramp rabbit."

"Could you do it down here in the kitchen?" asked the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"Do what?" Uncle Wiggily wanted to know. "Shave in the kitchen or look like a tramp rabbit?"

"Now don't be silly!" laughed Nurse Jane. "I mean would you come down to the kitchen to shave. I have a cake in the oven."

The oldest vicin in the world, it appears, belongs to a pharmacist at Bordeaux, but it is a Stradivarius. It was made by a lutenist, the inventor of violins, named Paffpuffus, in the year 1521. Four hundred years of making merry couples whirled in a dance to the tune of its atrettes and dreamy values is a pretty fair record, after all.

Who killed the cow? The jury can't decide in the case of one poor critter that ate a silk scarf belonging to a French woman of Charante. She was knitting by the roadside, put aside her scarf for a moment and the cow came along and ate it. The animal died soon afterward and the farmer says it's the woman's fault. At the same time the woman is suing the farmer for the loss of her pretty scarf.

In the Boulevard Pasteur is a little taxicab company, made up entirely of Russians. Of the six chauffeurs one is the "chef," formerly a division general. The others, all mechanics, were once captains and majors in the czar's army and are graduates of the best army training schools. The wife of the general is the secretary and treasurer.

Where are the pretty ladies in the store windows? The high cost of the beautiful wax mannequins which are the delight of Paris window shoppers, are being replaced by wooden silhouettes. They are mere flat planks cut into proper lengths and topped off by a head and two movable arms. Paris designers think that they will be successful by attracting less attention to themselves and allowing the dress or costume to dominate the scene.

Now, though Nurse Jane didn't see them, the Fuzzy Fox and the Woolly Wolf were hiding in the bushes not far away.

"Oh, did you hear that?" whispered the Fox to the Wolf. "Nurse Jane said she was going to put cream sauce on a cake she is baking."

"I heard!" growled the Wolf. "While she is out we can go in the kitchen and take that cake."

POSSIBILITIES OF PRAYER ARE TOLD
Rev. Calderwood Says We Cannot Do Divine Work Without Help

"With the completion of this new church we will be given new opportunities, and this means new work," declared Rev. C. M. Calderwood yesterday morning before members of the Congregational church. For the new work we need divine strength to support us and divine wisdom to direct us. We cannot do a divine work without divine help.

"There are at least three fundamentals upon which this church should rest. One is a consciousness of God in his law, power, love and care. Another is the mastery of Christ in our individual and social activities, for this is our salvation. The third is that prayer through which God and Christ are communicated to us."

"The moment we believe in God we are face to face with a strong presumption in favor of the utility of prayer. If God is omnipotent, He can hear. If He is omniscient, He can know. If He is a moral being, He can make reply."

Men Should Pray
"There is scriptural warrant for our belief in prayer. His words about prayer are clear and confident. We are told that 'men ought always to pray and not to faint.' If we would make our lives count for more we are reminded that we must ask, seek and knock. The stories of the woman before the unjust judge and the friend at midnight, teach us the need of perseverance in prayer."

"The example of our Lord is a great lesson in prayer. He was great and good and wise, but he felt the need of prayer. It was prayer that made him great and good and wise. His habit of prayer and its power over his life was so manifest that others went to him and asked Him to teach them to pray. If Jesus had need of prayer, how much more do we need it."

"Some have asked why it is that God withholds many of his blessings until we ask. He withholds the harvest until we toil in the field. He withholds the treasures in the mines until we dig for them. Certain blessings are conditioned upon our working and asking for them."

SPORTS CHATTER
By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

We predicted a revival of the agitation for a return match between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey and have not been disappointed. However, the only persons who seem in the least excited over the matter are Tex Rickard and Willard. How a negligible minority can keep a pot boiling does beat all.

Battling Nelson says he wouldn't be dishonest for a million dollars. There's one thing about that need never cause the Batter any loss of sleep—he'll never be put to the test for that amount at any rate.

Bill Johnson, the California tennis expert is conspicuous by his absence from the courts. Last season Bill inaugurated the system of dropping the game entirely for a spell and it improved his game. Prior to that time he had been playing more or less all winter until he found he had been getting a surfeit of the game and staled before the close of the regular season. It is more than likely that he will be at the top of his game again next season.

The most interesting thing on the sport menu at the moment is the controversy between President Bill McCarthy of the Pacific Coast baseball league and Judge Kenesaw Landis, the Federal of the game. Landis has shown an inclination to pooh-pooh and wax sarcastic with McCarthy thus far, but he is likely to find that he has underestimated the capabilities of McCarthy. The coast man has a reputation for a subtle wit and is more than likely to be able to hold his own with the man who fined the Standard Oil company.

The Pacific coast takes a considerable pride in its baseball league and no secrets are being

Locals and Pomona Will Clash Tonight

The second Glendale-Pomona basketball game of the Los Angeles county American Legion casaba league will take place tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the Glendale Union high school gymnasium. Although the Pomona quintet overwhelmed the locals earlier in the season Captain Wheeler is confident of a victory this evening. The public is invited to attend.

Seek Seven Bandits In Wild West Holdup

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 15.—Shot-gun squads were scouring the countryside today for seven bandits who surrounded the Percola roadhouse late Saturday night and held up the 250 guests in true wild west fashion, stripping them of everything of value in their possession. Estimates of the loot run from $25,000 to $50,000. Society people from Oakland and San Francisco lost money and jewels.

Community spirit is increased when you do your buying in Glendale.

Do you remember a year ago: That Pacific Coast Baseball League directors went on record as opposed to the "draft." That the National Boxing association officially suspended middleweight champion Johnny Wilson and his manager. That Australia was the first nation to challenge this country for the Davis Cup.

That Occidental College of Los Angeles won the annual cross country championship of the Southern California Conference. That Charlie White was awarded a ten round decision over Johnny Dundee at Boston.

That Benjamin F. Shibe, former President of the Philadelphia American League team and American League was buried at Philadelphia. That Harry Willis won ten round decision from Sam Langford at Portland, Ore. 1922.

That Louis E. Stoddard, New Haven was named chairman of National Polo Association and twenty-two tournaments exclusive of championships were sanctioned.

That Bernie Wefers Jr., New York A. C. successfully defended his 60 yard and 200 yard indoor sprint titles in the Metropolitan championships at New York.

That Walter H. Lingner, Milwaukee, Wis., was re-elected president of the National Boxing association in session at New Orleans.

That outfielder Arnold Stutz and Pitcher Aldridge were sold by Los Angeles to Chicago Nationals for an unnamed sum and eight players.

That Joe Moore of New York won the Canadian 250 skating championship at St. Johns, N. B. That Frank Frisch, infielder New York Nationals signed his contract at an increase in salary. That W. Jones forward on Fort Recovery, Ohio high school basketball team scored 90 points in one game, an individual scoring record.

That Charles Jewstrow, U. S. ice skating champion set new 220 yd. world record of 29 seconds at St. Johns, N. B.

That Jim Barnes American open golf champion won the California open title at Los Angeles.

That John McGraw signed a five year contract to manage the New York Giants team.

That Frank Kales, San Francisco was elected president of the Northern California Golf Association and Robert M. Eyre secretary.

That President Marshall of Purdue University stated that Coach Lone Star Dietz would not be recommended as football coach owing to charges against Dietz that he promised to pay stars to attend Purdue.

That San Francisco baseball team traded pitcher Johnny Couch to Cincinnati for four players.

That Georges Carpentier signed articles to box Kid Lewis in London early in April.

That Judge Landis announced he had no objection to Babe Ruth training with his team but the matter was up to the team.

That Erie High school swimming team of Philadelphia broke the world's interscholastic 200 yard relay record with a new mark of 1 minute, 46 2-5 seconds.

That Flint Hanner, National collegiate javelin champion was elected track captain of Stanford varsity.

That the Exeter, Calif., American League football team won the state Legion football title, defeating the San Bernardino team 14 to 0.

open warfare on the structure of organized baseball.

John A. Heydler and other baseball fans here are aware of the threatened revolt. For the moment they are content to watch and wait.

That the situation is serious no one is foolhardy enough to disclaim. Geographically related as it is, the Pacific coast league can assume an outlaw status with far greater ease than the Federal league and other similar ventures. These latter were forced to assume the burden of proof in making territorial invasions but the Coast league is self-sufficient as it stands and needs reach out no further than its own circuit for box office popularity.

It would lose the great revenue it has been getting from the sale of players like Kamm, O'Connell, Hale and others, but that is of slight moment. It was due to lose this anyhow, since players, not cash, figured in the transactions for the most part.

Things equal to the same thing are equal to each other, it is said, and, therefore, enough is sufficient. The league will not accept a fight on this matter within the ranks, is disposed to step outside the pale and conduct a species of

Whether to Accept Draft Is Subject of Debate at Opening Session

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15.—To accept or not to accept the major league draft is the paramount issue before the Pacific Coast Baseball League which convened here this morning in what was expected to develop into a hectic and fiery meeting.

William H. McCarthy, president of the league, is prepared to launch another verbal broadside against Judge K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, and point out the evils and inequalities of the draft. It was a mooted question what the attitude and line-up of the clubs would be on the issue.

Some ventured that San Francisco, Sacramento, Vernon and Seattle would again back McCarthy as they did last summer in efforts tooust William H. Klepper as president of the Portland club.

The wise ones have also figured out that Los Angeles, Oakland, Portland and Salt Lake may line up as the opposing faction to the threatening war on the majors.

But the more conservative prognosticators—sollicitous for the welfare of coast baseball—were hopeful that the menacing problem would be solved without ruction and strife.

Judge W. W. McCredie, ex-owner of the Portland club, made the address of welcome. Besides the draft issue the league will adopt its schedule for the season.

JESUS OVERCAME MANY OBSTACLES

Saviour Had Uncanny Ability in Meeting Reverses, Says Rev. Kemp

"Jesus met and overcame the great obstacles of life," remarked Rev. Philip K. Kemp yesterday morning at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

"One of the fascinating qualities in the life of the Saviour," he stated was His ability to meet and overcome those obstacles that each one of us is continually called upon to face.

Jesus began His ministry among His own people and immediately had to face the natural prejudice of those who had known Him since a boy.

They were all astonished at His gracious words when He stood up in the synagogue on that memorable morning. In the words of St. Luke who alone has kept the record for us, "They were astonished and said, whence hath this man this wisdom and these mighty works, is not this Joseph's son?"

Unlike most of us He started His ministry at home and in the presence of the most critical of audiences—our own folks. They felt they knew all about Him. Yes they knew all but that most important fact of His divine origin.

Faced Many
Then, in the second place, He faced the obstacle of those who should have been His greatest helpers, the religiously minded of His time, the Pharisees and Scribes. They saw only the details of life while Jesus saw the whole picture of God's love, which was greater than any petty spirit of non-compliance with the law and tradition of old.

"Then, in the third place, Jesus conquered the obstacle of death and showed us how to do likewise. Life is not the brief span it seems to many of us but a grand drama act both here and in the world to come."

"Our lives are part of the eternal life with God. Under the guidance of Jesus our work will go on and nothing that we do which is worth while can be stopped by death but must go on. We have Jesus' warrant for this which should be sufficient."

Rev. Ernest E. Ford Speaks On 'Fatherhood of God' In Sunday Address

"It is a wonderful thing to be able to call God our Father," declared Rev. Ernest E. Ford yesterday morning at the First Baptist church.

"Some writer has said that there are three stages in the growth of a human soul: First, when the baby looks out on a great buzzing, blooming confusion; second, when the child comes to a consciousness of self as a separate being with an individual responsibility; third, when he comes into a consciousness of God as the All Supreme Being. It seems to me that there is a fourth when a human soul looks up to the Great God with all His dazzling splendor and power and says, 'My Father.'"

"Jesus paints a wonderful picture of Fatherhood. He clothes the grass, robes the lily of the field, scatters crumbs for the ravens, and stretches out a tender hand upon the just and the unjust. He bends down and whispers His secrets into the ear of children; while He sends the self-righteous away empty. He hears us when we pray, and gives the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him."

Proves Master Key
"Jesus said, 'I and my Father are one.' We often think and speak of Jesus as God, but do we as often speak of God as Jesus? If that be true, and I believe it is, then God has something of the human in Him for Jesus was also the Son of Man. As the sunlight falling upon Niagara reveals the rainbow in its spray; so the leaping, iridescent waters reveal the sunshine. So God's Fatherhood reveals what we are, and our sonship reveals God as Father."

The Fatherhood of God is the master key to the problems of human existence. Is man immortal? If the Father is then the children are. Fatherhood cures care and worry; if He clothes the grass and robes the lily, will He not take care of His children?

"It is not the theory of Fatherhood of God but the reality that helps. The sun is much warmer than an iceberg, but the picture of the sun is no warmer than a picture of an iceberg. There is no more help in the theory of evolution; but in the fact of the Fatherhood of God there is comfort and rest and hope and life everlasting."

Angeleno Arrested On Robbery Charge

Sacks of cement stolen early yesterday morning from a bungalow under construction at 1822 South San Fernando road caused D. J. McDonald of 324 Drew street, Los Angeles, to be arrested. His automobile containing the stolen cement was taken as evidence. The property is owned by Herbert Crane.

NEW WOMAN TO STAY, IS CLAIM

She Has Perfect Right to Place, Says Dr. Funk in Sunday Sermon

"The New Woman, Has She Come to Stay?" was the topic of the discussion yesterday morning at the First Lutheran church.

"The new woman is here," asserted Dr. H. C. Funk. "Look at her from a right point of view and I think you will say that she has come to stay."

"Yes, she is covly responsible for the absence of the saloon. She has a right to fight the saloon for it was conceived in sin and born in iniquity. It destroyed character and robbed the poor."

"When the queen of Madagascar was approached by the saloonkeepers, whose business she had suppressed, with a request for compensation, she answered briefly: 'Compensate those whom you have injured and I will pay the balance.'"

"God made man first; then, when He looked upon what He had done, He said, 'It is not good that man should be alone.' And the wisdom of the Almighty has been attested by all great men from that day to this."

Tribute to Women
"Luther, the hero of the Reformation, in writing to a friend, said: 'Catherine, my dear rib, salutes thee. She is quite well, thank God; gentle, obedient and kind in all things, far beyond my hopes. I would not exchange poverty with her for all the riches of Croesus without her.'"

"We have heard it said that woman has been encroaching on man's domain. But let us see. It was woman who first washed the wool. She dyed the wool and made it into cloth. Does it not appear, then, that men by their inventions have been infringing on woman's rights?"

"It is all right for men to engage in baking bread, cakes and pies, but it will never do for women to study law or practice medicine because these things are out of her sphere. Think of a big six-footer standing around with his hands in his pockets talking like that!"

Maine Town's Strong For 'Fast Horses'

KENNEBUNKPORT, Me., Jan. 15.—This town claims to have more fast horses than any other town in the state. A lover of horses counted up the fast ones here, and the total was thirty-two.

The local club will meet to take action in regard to the challenge of the Harrison Club to race their horses against any club in the Pine Tree State for $500 a side.

215 Offspring at His 117th Birthday

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—Farmer Valentine Paluschke, in the Upper Silesian village of Kiella, in the District of Rybnik, lately celebrated his 117th birthday in excellent spirits and health.

His complete family, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who assembled round the patriarch, aggregated the imposing number of 215. Paluschke is probably the oldest living inhabitant in the whole of Germany.

Pacific-Southwest Review

By H. NELSON, Manager Glendale Avenue Branch Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank

Dates for the payment of taxes—Federal, State, County and Municipal—are of the utmost importance to corporations, as well as to business men and other individuals.

In order to be of service to our customers in this matter, the Trust Department of the bank has prepared the following 1923 tax calendar covering Federal, State, County and Municipal taxes, which will be of value to everyone in the Pacific-Southwest.

JANUARY 1—Municipal—Interest and 1-10 payment of street bonds payable to City Treasurer. (This tax is regulated by state law in all cities.)

JANUARY 10—State and County—Second installment of taxes become due and payable to County Tax Collector.

FEBRUARY 4—California—Corporation franchise tax, second installment, payable to State Treasurer by February 5.

MARCH 3—California—Corporation franchise tax forfeiture for 1922 tax.

MARCH 5—State and County—Statement of ownership of all taxable personal and real property to be filed with County Assessor.

California—Corporation—franchise tax for 1922 become a lien. State and County—Unsecured personal property payable to County Assessor upon his demand.

MARCH 15—Federal—Federal Income Tax returns made on a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before March 15, and an installment of at least one-quarter of the total tax must be paid when filing the income tax return. Returns based on other than a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

MARCH 15—California—Last day to file Corporation Franchise Tax report with State Board of Equalization.

APRIL 22—State and County—Second installment of taxes becomes delinquent at 6:00 p. m., and a penalty of 5 per cent is added.

MAY 31—State and County—Last day for filing statement of ownership with County Assessor.

JUNE 8—(on or about)—State and County—Last day of the month next succeeding the one in which collected or accrued.

June 15—Federal—Federal Income Tax returns made on a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before June 15, and an installment of at least one-quarter of the total tax must be paid when filing the income tax return. Returns based on other than a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

SEPTEMBER 15—Federal—Federal Income Tax returns made on a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before September 15, and an installment of at least one-quarter of the total tax must be paid when filing the income tax return. Returns based on other than a calendar-year basis must be filed on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

DECEMBER 3—State and County—Personal property and first installment of real property taxes become delinquent at 6:00 p. m. and a penalty of 15 per cent is added.

DECEMBER 15—Federal—Payment of income tax. The fourth or last installment of income tax due on returns filed on a calendar-year basis payable on this date.

Federal sales taxes must be paid and the return made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the one in which collected or accrued.

BETERBILT DRY BATTERY

$22.50 With a Two-Year Guarantee

Ever since automobiles have come into use, one of the vulnerable points has been the battery, which has required frequent filling with distilled water; otherwise short life to the battery and inconvenience to the driver.

The invention of the Beterbilt Dry Battery overcomes this fault. A better battery, with longer life, and absolutely NO ATTENTION OR FILLING.

The Beterbilt Dry Battery is now on the market at a lower cost than most batteries ($22.50 for the ordinary size, 11 plate) with an unconditional guarantee of two years.

We Convert Your Present Battery to a Dry Battery for $3.50

Don't wait for your battery to go bad; converting it will prolong its life six months to a year, give you better service and the satisfaction of being able to forget the periodic filling.

We do the work while you wait and give you a six months' guarantee. Drive around today and let us tell you about it. We can refer you to many present satisfied users in Glendale.

Builders Here Is Your Opportunity

In the Eleventh Unit we sold lots to five or six different builders for immediate or future use after they investigated many sections.

These lots are especially advantageous for builders because houses sell quickly in FAIRVIEW, the amount invested in a lot is so low that it enables builders to give more house value than in any other place, and lots can be bought for future use with an investment of only $50 at the present time. We believe this is the last unit we will be able to sell on the remarkably low terms on which these are offered.

Everybody desires a home of their own, the first step is to get a desirable lot. Come out today and let us show you the lots in the Twelfth Unit.

How to Secure a Home

Every man or woman at some time aspires to be a home owner. Statistics reveal the deplorably small numbers who ever acquire a home other than in name only.

HOW MUCH of a home can you own depends upon your saving ability. $18.00 per month acquires a $5000.00 Home $36.00 per month acquires a $5000.00 Home $54.00 per month acquires a $5000.00 Home $72.00 per month acquires a $5000.00 Home

THE METHOD

by which this is accomplished is through loan contracts of the WESTERN MUTUAL FINANCE COMPANY.

Suppose you wished to secure a $5000.00 home. $36.00 per month invested in loan contracts of the Western Mutual Finance company will, when the loan is made, afford sufficient cash to pay down over half the cost of the home. The balance can be handled through a straight second mortgage which subsequently can be lifted with additional contracts.

This is a safe and sure way of acquiring a home on easy monthly payments plan at a minimum interest cost, and at a very low rate of interest. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity. Call or write for further information.

PRAYER'S ALTAR, SERMON'S THEME

Pastor Tells Symbolism of Psalmist's Picture of Holy Tabernacle

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning Rev. W. E. Edmonds preached on "The Altar of Prayer," from the words, "Let my prayer be set before Thee as incense." (Ps. 141:2). A resume follows: "David had in mind the picture of the tabernacle. There in the holy place, before the costly curtain in front of the most holy, stood the altar of incense, and when incense was burning upon it, the sweet fragrance filled all the place. The altar was small, made of fine acacia wood, overlaid with gold, with a border of beaten gold as a crown about its top. Its symbolism is for our learning: it represents Christ's intercession for us, and also our intercession in the name of Christ—it is expressive of prayer and communion with God. Christ—how much He prayed! And we, who need so much, how little we pray! "The dual nature of Christ is shown in this altar, the wood for His humanity, overlaid with the fine gold for His divinity. And the believer, too, the gold of the new nature is laid over the wood. "Prayer Works Changes. "This altar was nearest to the most holy place, to God. Prayer is the closest to God, and it stands highest in the believer's life. Prayer changes things, and it is the only thing that does. "Upon the corners of the altar were horns of gold, pointing the four directions of the world, Israel. The prayers of our Lord reach all directions for all His people. For the believer every part of earth is his range. If you have only one horn on your altar you are not in line with God's will, and can't look for His answer. "The altar had gold rings on its corners, to be lifted up by cords to carry, for it was to go along with the people wherever they moved. Are there any rings on your altar of incense, to take it along with you? If you leave it behind, what are you going to do? This means the difference between conquest and defeat. "Must Keep Fire Alive "The fire upon this altar was never to go out. Has your fire gone out? Comes a crisis—I had better get up my fire! What did you let it go out for? You had no rings on your altar, you did not bring it along. That altar will take the irksomeness out of your life, in office, kitchen or anywhere; and it will be absolutely everything. You have begun to live without it. The odor of precious spices filled that whole place, a holy disinfectant; prayer keeps the atmosphere. "Another thing: there was the genuine incense fire, and there could be a false. But God had set down exactly what it should be. You hear, it's all the same, all alike; my life is fragrant with this, that, and the other. If it is in your own name, your own virtue, no; only God's way. "The incense must be crushed: how He was crushed! God enables us to bring our incense beaten very small."

Herbert L. Crane is erecting a most picturesque mission style house at 1627 Gardena avenue. The house is six rooms, plaster, strictly up to date in every way and will soon be ready for occupancy by Mr. Crane and family.

Carolyn and Wesley Ashton of 322 El Bonito avenue, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Van Etten and family, who have recently moved from Glendale to Pasadena, where they have purchased a home at 476 South Madison avenue.

Miss Lucile Beach, Miss Beryl Goodale, Miss Marjorie Temple, Robert Hatch, Arthur Barton, Dallas Kalbaugh, Richard Johnson, Mrs. Emil Johnson, Mrs. P. L. Hatch and Mrs. A. A. Barton were members of a party that motored to Hollywood Saturday night and enjoyed a theatre party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and their daughters, Misses Josephine and Olive Belle Emery, of 329 North Kenwood street, spent the week-end with the Emerys' married daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Eaton, of Santa Barbara. Mrs. Eaton was formerly Miss Maunila Emery, of Glendale.

Mrs. P. S. McNutt of 1001 Sierra avenue entertained at luncheon last Tuesday Mrs. Harry Trowbridge of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Trowbridge and Mrs. McNutt went to the same school together, back in Des Moines, Ia. They later graduated from the same teachers' college and entered the same line of educational work, in their respective cities.

Eighteen members of the voluntary choir of the Casa Verdugo church accompanied by a number of the members of the congregation motored to Roscoe Saturday night and gave a rendition of the cantata, "The Everlasting Light," by W. Back, before a congregation at the Methodist church at Roscoe. W. F. Blaikie directed for the evening. Solo parts were sung by Mrs. Waldo Winger, Mrs. R. D. Jones, Mrs. W. F. Blaikie, J. W. Cotton and R. D. Jones.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. MAGDALENA DOLCH
Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Tuesday, January 16, 1923, in the chapel of L. G. Scovern for Mrs. Magdalena Dolch of Burbank. Mrs. Dolch was 76 years of age and had lived in Burbank and vicinity for eleven years. Interment will be at Whittier.

MRS. PAULINE A. AMES
Mrs. Pauline A. Ames died yesterday, Sunday, January 14, 1923, at a local hospital at the age of 90. Funeral announcement will be made later by L. G. Scovern.

The Glendale Evening News, speaks of the fortune of a stout-hearted soldier, one who under all circumstances, is able to bear up and steer right on.

"Are we of those who, in this time of weakening faith around us, insolent indifference to spiritual things, utterly lose heart. The apostle shows that it is the hope of our Lord's return that will keep one steady at such times. In this expectation lay the peculiar strength of the Thessalonian Christians.

"In this persecuted church there was ample room for the toil of brotherly love. The toil of love is still the sure outgrowth of the life of faith. The word 'others' is still the keyword of Christianity. Self is a blighting spirit. It is like the upas tree, in the atmosphere of which nothing beautiful can grow.

"I heard recently of how a new policeman, somewhat puffed up with his new authority, came across an old lady wearing a shawl. She was bending over something which she concealed in her apron. The officer thought that she was into some mischief and threatened her with arrest, bidding her show him what she was concealing. It proved to be bits of glass that she had picked up from the path lest the bare feet of children should be cut."

A SOCIAL EVENT

Wedding Ceremony

The marriage of Mrs. A. E. Clark and George H. Slack took place last Wednesday night, January 10, 1923, at the home of Mrs. Clark's daughter, Mrs. M. W. Chandler, at 733 South Brand boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Slack were friends thirty-six years ago in Hillsdale, Michigan. Mrs. Slack's maiden name was Miss Edington, and after her first marriage she came to live in Los Angeles, while Mr. Slack resided in Randolph, Vermont. Their friendship was renewed within the past few months.

The wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Chandler, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. P. P. Carroll. Before the Lohengrin wedding march, Miss Irene Bowen gave a flute solo and Miss Juanita Bowen sang "Love's Coronation," accompanied by Mrs. William Read, pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. Slack were preceded by the grand-daughter of the bride, Virginia Irene Chandler, wearing a yellow taffeta frock and carrying the ring.

Following the ceremony music and refreshments were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Slack will spend a few days at Ocean Park and then return to Los Angeles to reside.

Teachers Gather

Miss Charlotte Read of 701 North Central avenue opened her home one evening recently for a holiday gathering of a group of young women from the Michelena Street school in Los Angeles. It was an affair for the school faculty and the assisting hostesses were Mesdames Behler, Snyder, Misses Eaton, Lord, Monchieff, Quigley and Spain.

A buffet dinner was served at 6 o'clock and later in the evening a Christmas tree furnished entertainment. There were gifts for each one, especially chosen to fit the hobbies of members of the company.

Other members of the company were Mesdames Bright, Bryan, Gouth, Lilley, Loomis, Milen, Misses Burns, Bathey, Carroll, Flynn, Hov, Hoy, Hume, McDowell, Nelson, Oliver, Perry, Phelps, Shellenberger and Clara and Ethel Read.

Junior Musicians

Junior Music club members and guests were received Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Frank E. Webb at 303 North Louise street.

During the evening the following program was enjoyed: Readings, "Revelation" and "For Goodness Sake" by Miss Marie Grey; vocal solos, "Pale Moon" and "The Wren," by Miss Winifred Parker; vocal solos, "A Thrush at Eve" and "At Dawning," by Miss Florence Rattray; piano numbers, "Blossom Time" and "Carnival" (Kranz), by Miss Gertrude Chapman; violin numbers, "Ave Maria" (Shubert) and "At Twilight" (Kranz), by Julius Kranz; current events led by Miss Jeanette Luke.

Entertains Pupils

The home of Mrs. R. W. Mottern of 211 North Adams street was the scene Friday night of a jolly affair, when Mrs. Mottern, Mrs. C. A. Cole and Mrs. J. W. Colvin entertained forty members of the A-8-2 class of Wilson Avenue Intermediate school at the annual class party.

The evening hours passed merrily with various diverting games, the "can factory" proving especially entertaining. Light refreshments were served. Miss Lucretia Potter, the class teacher, Charles Merrill, vice principal, and Mrs. Merrill were honored guests.

Visit Over Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Bixby, daughter and son, Miss Avis and Llewellyn, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Courtwright, wife of Louis Beach were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Walton at 1603 East California avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Bixby and son leave this week for a three months' tour of South America, while Miss Bixby will continue her work at Pomona college at Claremont.

Gives Stag Party

A. H. McGee, of 524 West Burchett street, gave a stag party at his home last Wednesday night, at which he entertained five Glendale and Los Angeles friends and business associates. A midnight buffet supper was served. The guests were W. M. Cline and H. H. West, of Glendale; and Glen R. Velzey, William Schmitz and Harry Schmitz of Los Angeles.

Egyptian Program

Egypt is to furnish the inspiration for the meeting of the Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. A. P. McBoyle at 369 West Milford street. Mrs. C. W. Houston will give an account of her trip through Egypt and Miss Kathleen Woods will give an Egyptian dance in costume.

Jacksons Receive

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson, hosts Saturday night at a delightful social affair and supper at their home, "Jersey Villa," at 1300 South Brand boulevard, where they entertained as guests members of Omar Tent No. 9, White Shrine of Jerusalem, and a group of close friends.

Entertainment features of the evening were tricks by a Los Angeles magician; readings by Mrs. George Pierce, Mrs. James Phillips and Frank Bourne; and vocal numbers by Mrs. Porter Custer and D. Ripley Jackson.

Dancing was also enjoyed and late in the evening a four-course supper was served. In decorating for the affair, Mrs. Jackson chose the White Shrine colors, white and yellow, using large bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and white carnations. The color scheme was carried out in the supper appointments and in the ice-cream and punch served. Mrs. Ralph and Mrs. Hattie Ellis assisted the hostess.

The company at the Jackson home included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Naudain, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Vesper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Custer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Carol, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jergenson, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Lealand, Mrs. J. Phillips, Mrs. W. McMillan, Mrs. Nellie Squire, Mrs. Maud Smith, J. Rohr, Mrs. May Warwick, Mrs. S. Delgado, Mrs. Libby Cutting, Mrs. Hattie Ellis, Dr. W. H. Appleton, Mrs. Ralph, Mrs. James Wyvell, the hosts and their daughter, Grace Anna Jackson.

Girl Scouts Meet

Glendale Girl Scouts, Troop No. 1, held an all day meeting Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase, 400 Riverdale drive. The members of the Oriole Patrol who were hostesses for the day, prepared and served a delicious three-course luncheon. A straw ballot was taken and results placed in the hands of the standing nominating committee, to assist in election of troop officers, which is scheduled for the next meeting. Following the business meeting the hostesses presented a novel entertainment in which they very cleverly impersonated in burlesque many members of the troop. This meeting marked the initial attendance of five new members of the troop, Helen Sherwood, Wilma Gossard, Alice Dewey, Lucille Harris, Dorothy Lindgren.

Members of the Oriole Patrol are Beryl Goodale, patrol leader; Katherine Bender, corporal; Frances Betz, Alice Carpenter, Charlotte Cleveland, Vivian Nay, Evelyn Traver. The next meeting will be held in February at the home of Emma Laura Cooper, 202 North Central avenue, when the members of the Eagle Patrol will be hostesses.

Hostess Tomorrow

Mrs. J. Herbert Smith is to be hostess tomorrow at her home at 1117 North Maryland avenue, where she will have as guests members of Chapter 2H, P. E. O. The regular luncheon will be served at noon and in the afternoon Mrs. Lucile Eames will have charge of the program.

YEARLY PAYMENT EARNS REDUCTION

One Who Pays in Advance
For Term Subscription
Gets Lower Rate

It has been the practice of The Evening News, the past four years, to make reductions from monthly rates on long time subscriptions. While the practice may not be in general use in other newspaper offices, yet it is a very sensible and fair way of doing.

The man who pays a subscription a year in advance performs an act that saves the office eleven additional transactions in the year, as compared with the man who pays by the month.

Each transaction requires an envelope, paper and a two cent stamp and the time of an office clerk to write correspondence and make the necessary records in books. In the instance of the payment of a year's subscription one transaction includes everything.

Until January 20, which is next Saturday, the yearly subscription price of The Evening News payable in advance is $5, averaging about 42 cents per month.

After January 20 the subscription price will be as follows:

One year, in advance.....$6.00
Six months, in advance.....3.25
Three months, in advance.....1.75
Two months, in advance.....1.25
One month, in advance......70

The subscriber who pays $5 before the close of January 20 saves $3.40 as against paying 70 cents per month. A 75 per cent saving is worth considering.

The Evening News is on the verge of some very important improvements in its contents and make-up. It is a welcome visitor in every home. The Evening News has the largest bona fide circulation of any paper in Glendale.

LIVING MOST FOR GOD, IS SERMON

Rev. Mullen Asserts He Who Is Close to Lord Is Dead to Self

"He lives most to God who has died most to self," declared Rev. H. C. Mullen yesterday morning at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church.

"The grain of wheat, which falls into the ground and dies, does not abide alone, but yields a many-fold harvest. He, who buries in the grave of self-renunciation his old life, will know 'the power of his resurrection,' and experience the flood-tides of the life which is ever 'more abundant.'"

"Suffering is not our ideal of normal life. Freedom from pain is one of our wishes. We had rather know joy and pleasure than suffering.

"The secret of Paul's desire to know the fellowship of Christ's suffering is to be found in the fact that He loved His Lord supremely. And love never reckons the cost. It demands fellowship with its object, no matter what the price.

Paul Realized Cost

"Paul knew the high cost of love. He paid the price. His old faith, former friends, the ostracism of his family were some of the things.

"Is it apparent that this desire has no appeal to the indolent, selfish or cowardly. Christian life and service is not a milk and water affair. It has no challenge to the soft, effeminate side of human nature. It demands the heroic, red-blooded, sacrificial life. It has no place for moral cowardice and weaklings. Christianity is not going to heaven 'on flowery beds of ease,' but battling against principalities and powers, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

"When we unite our hearts and minds with Christ in sympathetic understanding and feeling we enter the fellowship of His sufferings. Then, and only then, may we feel a compassion for men, like unto Christ's."

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Mothers Will Always Pay
Governor's Son Is Shaver
Disabled Vets Need Help
Merriam Is Story Teller

By Gil A. Cowan

MOST satisfactory is the decision of the United States to withdraw the American forces from the Rhine. Sorry that fifty men must be left there. Of course, it is too bad for an army of occupation to break the ties which have endeared them to the German people, for it is said that the Yankees have made friends with the frauds and their fathers, too.

Nevertheless, it will make many a mother's heart rejoice in the knowledge that her boy is safe in port, this side of the Big Pond, and that the world was made safe for democracy and more war.

Sorrowfully the writer overheard a woman well up in years declare she would never live through another war.

"I have seen too much of it," she said, "and if America cannot keep out of it I do not want to see any more of our boys taken away to be killed."

Other mothers likely feel the same way on the subject, not alone in America, but all over the world.

John Albert Richardson, 10 year old son of the governor, holds the reputation of being the youngest user of a safety razor, his father believes.

The morning of inauguration Johnnie, who is quite a favorite in Southern California, was caught by his uncle laboriously scraping the fuzz from his chin.

Senator Herbert W. Slater tells a good one on the governor. When it was suggested to Mrs. Richardson that her husband clip his long locks, she replied:

"I am no Delilah and would not have Sampson shorn of his power."

And some wisecrack remarks that there is a "toy at the head of the highway" commission now. Well, if you saw that big boy Harvey W. Toy is not to be toyed with, we'll tell the world.

While some of the service men have almost forgotten there was a world war, there are still disabled veterans among the population for whom the American Legion must see that they get a square deal.

And there are others that served who still are looking for those jobs so glibly promised them as they marched away to war. Glendale doesn't appreciate the unemployment situation as it is to be found in the northern part of the state and in the northwest.

Hundreds of men are to be found in San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland and Seattle, waiting for the trains, begging for a bite with which to get a bite to eat, and from indications most of these men saw service in the army or navy.

Perhaps the former service men in the state legislature can do something this session to ameliorate the condition of their more unfortunate "buddies."

Assemblyman Frank Merriam of Long Beach, speaker of the house, always has a stock of clothes for after dinner speeches. In urging the support of the administration's program in California's government, he said:

"One of our Long Beach life-guardians swam out to save a man who had jumped off the municipal pier. He grabbed him by the hair and off flew a wig. He grabbed him by the collar and tore off the celluloid. So, with one last desperate dive he caught hold of a leg and that wretched extremity was all that he saved."

"Centured by spectators," continued Mr. Merriam, "the guard caustically commented, 'Well, if he couldn't hang together he ought to have drowned.'"

"So it is for the newspapermen of the state to hang together in aiding together to fulfill his pledge of 'economy with efficiency in state government,' concluded the speaker.

Two men well known in Pasadena are holding important senate attaché jobs this session. Joseph B. East, the secretary, came to the senate several years ago from Crown City and won the position of harbor-master at Balboa, Orange county. Wellington Bowser is serving again as the Senate Journal clerk, a position he has ably filled for years.

In fact, practically all of the attaches in both houses have had previous experience and there were three candidates for every worth while sinecure, it is said. Those who least desired the work got it, as usual.

Reapportionment of the districts in California, according to population, remains the bugaboo of the legislature. While some sort of a bill half-way favorable to the south might be jammed through the assembly, the senate is so organized as to block anything that would cut the "cow counties" out of representation and reduce the Bay Cities' leadership, it is hinted. And there the matter stands unless Los Angeles stages a sensation in the matter.

Glendale Baby Is Model for Picture

Tommy Furst, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furst, of 400 North Glendale avenue, posed with his pet rooster for the picture which appeared on the cover of the farm and tractor section of a Los Angeles Sunday newspaper, yesterday.

Although Tommy's birthday cake next April will have but two tiny candles, "he is a fine, big specimen of 'the kind they raise in Glendale.'"

FIRST OF SERMON SERIES IS GIVEN

Dr. Winnard Opens Lecture Program at Church on 'Stewardship'

The Tropic Presbyterian church congregation yesterday morning heard Dr. Winnard begin a series of sermons on "Stewardship."

"Numerous factors enter into personal religion and public worship," he remarked. "A man who prays is said to be religious. So is the man who reads his Bible, who attends church, or sings spiritual songs. So, too, is the man who gives, for giving is a religious act and is as definitely an act of worship to the Christian as any of the more common means by which we express our devotion to God.

"The scripture teaches that giving is an individual matter. Every one of you lay by as the Lord has prospered him," reads the text. You will look in vain in this text for the exemption. You will study the 'exemption' tables on your income tax blanks as carefully as you do the balance and it may be with some profit to yourself, but here the 'every one to you' is all inclusive.

System Is Guaranteed

"System is almost a guarantee of success and lack of it a sure cause of failure. And this is no more true in matters of business of the world than of the church. The church too often takes hold of its business at the wrong end.

"While the Scripture teaches 'sell and give,' we follow the policy of 'buy and sell and get gain.' Start systematic giving today and keep it up. No one ever loses by doing God's will in God's way.

"The Scripture teaches proportionate giving. 'As the Lord has prospered you.' To whom much is given much is required. That is fair and just. And the matter of proportionate giving settles at once and forever how much we should give."

System Is Guaranteed

"System is almost a guarantee of success and lack of it a sure cause of failure. And this is no more true in matters of business of the world than of the church. The church too often takes hold of its business at the wrong end.

"While the Scripture teaches 'sell and give,' we follow the policy of 'buy and sell and get gain.' Start systematic giving today and keep it up. No one ever loses by doing God's will in God's way.
